The Purpose of this class:

You are bombarded with different medias and technologies every day. Although you have more or less grown up accessing these medias, it's more important now then ever to understand how they work.

This class is primarily focused on the processes and techniques used to create movies, but it is so much more than that. You should leave this class with a brand new talent, but more importantly, you should leave with the skills to effectively analyze and comprehend media. That alone will better prepare you to navigate an increasingly digital world.

Attendance & Participation:

- ▶ 30% of your grade
- ▶ Tardies will lower your grade
- ▶ Be on time to participate in the Bell Videos
- ▶ Bell Videos can't be made up
- ▶ The following will reduce participation points: Unexcused absences, Doing work for other classes, Sleeping, Social talking

Tests & Quizzes:

Quizzes are meant to evaluate your understanding of various topics and processes.

You will take a State Competency Test that will be given at the end of the semester. You will be able to redo missed questions (not including state tests) for partial credit.

Deadlines & Late Work:

- ▶ Once you are in the Preproduction Phase and I approve your project, you cannot change it.
- ▶ Late work is accepted, but with a 50% deduction from the earned grade.
- ▶ You can fix projects turned in on time for additional credit (you must have original grade sheet).
- ▶ Make-up and all late assignments must be turned in prior to the last two weeks of each term.

Movies & Videos:

We will watch clips from many different movie-type productions to help you better understand the concept(s) we will discuss. Don't worry – each clip will be appropriate for school settings and no clips from movies rated "R" will be used.

Project Showcase:

Every project completed in class has the opportunity to be showcased in a variety of venues. However, only the best videos will be considered. Venues include YouTube, SHS Live, UStream, and the Utah High School Film Festival

Extra Credit:

Extra credit will be provided granted you are caught up with all of your other work.
